S i r,

I have the honor to submit that the Comptroller in auditting my salary bill for the last month disallows the increment of Rs 25 sanctioned by Government from 1st July 1916 as the Govt Order No 200-3 dated M L 111-15 dated 8th July 1916 sanctioning my employment in the Municipality on Rs 650, the salary I was drawing, plus 60, has not yet been revised with reference to the increment subsequently sanctioned

I request therefore that you will kindly obtain the revised orders of Government to my drawing Rs 675 plus 60 as per increment sanctioned by Government and communicated to me by the President on 2nd March 1917 copy enclosed for ready reference

I may mention that the Government in fixing my salary with pension at the salary on which I retired from Government Service even though that salary has been since increased by Rs 25, still subjects me to a loss of Rs 50 with respect to the terms proposed by the Improvement Committee in their Chairman's letter No 98 C I dated 18th April 1916 as shown below

As per Revised salary on Retirement		Allowance	Total
Rs 375/-	plus	60	735

As per Improvement Committee's recommendation

Salary	Rs 500		allowance Rs 60
Pension	225
Total	725	plus	60	Rs 785

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
